Pleasant Township Service Center began burning on Friday afternoon. According to Chief Gerald McKeever there were 14 to 15 employees on duty when the fire started at the Service Center. At first only a fire alarm was activated, but soon a second alarm sounded warning of the developing fire. "I immediately summoned firefighters from our townships and soon had 12 fire trucks and several other vehicles on the scene," Chief McKeever said. A few minutes later flames could be seen coming out of the Service Center windows. The center was evacuated, and fire personnel worked on putting out the blaze. The cause of the fire is not known. "Currently the Service Center is closed, and I am working with the Board of Fire Commissioners and Administrative Staff to see what is necessary to reopen the Service Center," said Chief McKeever. "I want to reassure residents that their tax money is being used wisely. We have done not one but two fire drills at the center in recent days. I think we did very well in the drill and I hope that residents
